

Spring 2019 Open Enrollment

The Office of First-Year Experience welcomes you to KU!

Below are more details about Open Enrollment and your next steps to becoming a Jayhawk.

Before You Come

Access the Discover KU course on Blackboard.

This pre-orientation session will introduce you to our office, KU academics, and helpful campus resources. Contact us to be added to the course by emailing firstyear@ku.edu.

Prepare for Orientation.

Be sure your transcripts, exam scores, and earned credit information are submitted to KU. Consider taking a language or math placement exam.

Plan for advising.

You will meet with an academic advisor on January 17 to enroll in classes. Refer to the chart on the following page for details, locations, and contact info. Some professional schools require an appointment – make yours in advance!

On January 17

Check in at our office in Strong Hall, Room 133.

Meet the First-Year Experience staff, pick up your Orientation materials, and get a new KU shirt!

Attend a welcome session.

You will receive essential information to prepare you for your first semester at KU. Sessions are offered at:

- 8:30 a.m.
- 9:30 a.m.
- 10:30 a.m.
- 11:30 a.m.

Meet with your academic advisor and enroll.

Head to your one-on-one appointment to develop your first semester course schedule based on your academic goals and interests.

Next Steps

Obtain your KU Card.

Visit the KU Card Center on Level 4 of the Kansas Union. A valid government-issued photo ID is required: driver's license, passport, military ID, green card, or state ID. kucard.ku.edu

Purchase textbooks.

Visit the KU Bookstore on Level 2 of the Kansas Union with a copy of your schedule to acquire your class materials. kubookstore.com

Explore campus.

Discover these unique (and free) places, all on KU's campus:

- Spencer Museum of Art
- Natural History Museum
- DeBruce Center
